Video Guide: Most Evil Woman in History and Queen Elizabeth Clip – also at http://missmorrisworldhistory.weebly.com under video tab for future studying and review puposes

Directions: Watch the videos attentively because Questions may not go in order. These questions are critical thinking questions and therefore require complete sentences and analysis for answers.

- 1) For what reason was Mary raised in the Catholic faith unlike her Protestant half sister Elizabeth and half brother Edward?
- 2) Because of what fear did Parliament make Jane Grey Queen of England instead of Mary, after King Edward's death?
- 3) Mary did not mention religion when she was fighting Parliament to acquire her rightful title as Queen of England. Instead, she argued she was the daughter and true blood of Henry VIII (Tudor Blood). Why did this political argument gain her more support than using religion?
- 4) Burning at the stake is cruel and unusual punishment, but served a psychological purpose. Why do you speculate that Mary choose this method instead of life imprisonment? How did this type of punishment eventually work against her and her reign?

5) Why would have Queen Elizabeth loathed the religious divisions of Europe? How would have it affected the stability of her country?

6) Explain how protestant church leadership in England is different that of the Roman Catholic Church.
